The World War II Memorial Peace Park Nestled in The Heart of Kuala Lumpur

The tower commemorates the heroic fighters in World War II in the cause of peace and freedom. The park covers an area of approximately 8,000 square metres and it consists of a majestic Hibiscus Memorial Tower and a beautiful green park.

The design of the tower is inspired by Malaysia's national flower - the Hibiscus, which denotes unifying the strength of Malaysians and conserving the spirit of peace at all times.

Come and experience the unrivalled peaceful and harmonious atmosphere and discover the beautiful green lush landscaping. Admission is free.

Malayan World War II People's Memorial Monument

The Japanese Army invaded Malaya on 8 December 1941. It lasted for 3 years and 8 months, causing countless civilian casualties and tremendous inhumane sufferings. The Memorial Peace Park commemorates the atrocious invasion and gives honour to those who lost their lives.

This project was initiated and funded by the Kwong Tong Cemetery's Board of Directors. The Malaysian Chinese Societies were urged to participate in the project; highlighting the cruelty of war, the preciousness of peace and to remember the Malayans and the patriots we lost during the occupation.

The design concept symbolises the chaotic atmosphere during war; explosions resulting in fragmented and shattered lives, the disunity of communities and landscapes of the entire country. All of which represents the peace and harmony after the war.

马来亚二战 人民蒙难纪念总碑碑记

1941年12月8日，日军入侵马来亚，开启了一段黑暗的历史。在3年零8个月的日据时期，许多平民惨遭欺压凌辱，不少人更蒙难牺牲。

为了悼念二战日治时期蒙难的马来亚人民与爱国烈士，以及让后人牢记战争的残酷与和平的珍贵，吉隆坡广东义山董事会独立斥资筹建“马来亚二战人民蒙难纪念总碑”及“和平公园”，并邀请马来西亚华社共同参与。

精魂忠骨，浩气长存。

设计理念反映了战争的惨况-炸弹摧毁了无数生命，家园支离破碎，大地满目疮痍。战争的破坏力量持续向外扩散，迸裂出景观平台、墙壁和座位，最后由耸立的纪念碑塔终结，象征著战争结束后的和平。

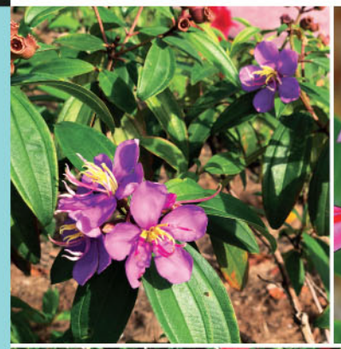

The Hibiscus Memorial Tower

Inspired by Malaysia's National Flower (Bunga Raya), the 30.8m tower celebrates the patriotism of Malaysians and their appreciation of peace since the country's independence in 1957. The hibiscus represents the Five National Principles of Malaysia. The blossoming hibiscus at the top of the pillar highlights the unity of all races and their collective hard work to achieve harmony. At the tower's base, the flower pistil with water feature stands for energy of life.

The Park

The conflict and collision of Japan and Malaya are represented by two ascending raised gardens. Selected flora contrasts against a backdrop of bullet fractured walls. The fragmented entrance challenges visitors to comprehend the events of 1941. 88 pigeon sculptures flying freely throughout the park symbolises Malaysia's quest for continued peace.

木槿花纪念总碑

纪念总碑高 30.8米，灵感来自于马来西亚的国花 – 木槿花(又称为大红花)，寓意马来亚在1957年独立建国之后，人民热爱国家与珍惜和平生活的心情。木槿花代表了马来西亚的五项国家原则。柱子顶部绽放的大红花瓣，象征着我国各族群团结一致为实现美好生活的共同努力；而在塔中心的基座，花蕊水景则表现了生命的能量。

和平公园

两个略微上升的景观平台代表了当年日本和马来亚的冲突，两边分别也选择了不同的植物，平台周边的墙壁还特别留下了子弹的裂痕。公园入口处碎片化的墙面，更像是一个穿越历史的通道，引领民众走进历史，深刻悼念蒙难者。另外，公园里八十八个自由翱翔的和平鸽子雕塑，则象征着马来西亚人民对和平的热爱。
